Dear Sir,

Your card received this morning and I am sending herewith a silver coin of Histiae andone of Pamphyllia, Perga. You did not say whether they were bronze or silver but as I could not locate a bronze of ~~Histiae~~ Histiaea I am sending a silver piece. If you do not want it in silver, you may return it.

Thanking you for the order and hoping they will reach you safely,

Yours very truly,

My Dear Sir,

Your letter returning the coin of Pamphylia received and we have given you credit for same and have sent the silver coin of Istrus which we hope will meet with your approval. We might suggest that in cleaning copper coins they lose value and the coin you returned will be difficult to sell on this account.

My Dear Mr. Huber,

Your letters received and have located the following coins which we shall be glad to send on approval if you wish.

Bavaria, Maximilian Joseph, Head right. R. Recompense with Merit. Half crown 75c.
Salsburg, John Ernest, Count of Thun. Head in diamond, 1694 R. Two Saints.
15 Kretzers. Unc. 75c.
Anhalt. John George. Small size, 25c.

Of the American coins, we do not have any you ask for at the moment. We might say in this connection all of those you ask for are scarce pieces and usually sell for good prices. I am returning your list herewith with attaching to each item the approximate value.

The cheapest Pine Tree Shilling we have is $10. Oak Tree 20. The Willow Tree shilling is very rare.

My Dear Mr. Huber

Received your list of Roman coins wanted and have checked it up with the coins we have in stock and find only one which we are sending herewith. The others that we have either had the Roman head with Biga or Quadriga or are much higher in price. Sorry we could not find more.

Yours very truly,

My Dear Mr. Huber,

Your letter enclosing coin to be attributed also the list of wants received. We are returning the coin herewith. It belongs to the Aelia family.

We are also sending what we have of those you ask for. We have checked over the list carefully and find some not listed in Babylon at all. The next time you are down you might bring your list with you and we will go over it. A few of the pieces are scarce and several very rare. We are including the Tetradrachm of Attalus on approval.

You will note the denarius of Aburia is broken.

Yours very truly,

On approval.

My dear Mr. Huber,

Your several list received and I have just finished going over them and our stock of these coins with the following results.

We are sending herewith three coins in approval. Of the list of Greek coins you sent we can supply the following:

Caria, Pixodarus, Stater, 322.

Syracuse Time of Gelon B. C. 465 - 478 Tetradrachm 324

The Decadrachm of Euainetos and Simon are very rare and bring from $1000 up.

The other items on this list we do not have in stock

Roman coins.

Of the list you sent we are sending two and have the following:

Didius Julianus 1st Br. at 10.

Didia Clara 1st Br. Rare 10.

Paulina 1st Br. 10.

The other coins on this list we do not have. I am returning the list of Consular coins you sent for names. Have marked those I could but those with question mark beside them I cannot tell without knowing the Babylon number or if you do not have this if you will bring the coins down the next time you come I will identify them for you.

Sorry I cannot find more coins to send you.

Yours very truly,
